

Database SQL Lab 3

- 1 Display the name, job, and salary of all employees who work in department 30.
- 2 Display the employee name and department name for all employees using an equi join between EMPLOYEE and DEPARTMENT tables.
- 3 List the employee name, salary, and grade for each employee by joining the EMPLOYEE table with the SALGRADE table using a non-equi join.
- 4 Display the name, job, and department name of all employees using an equi join between EMPLOYEE and DEPARTMENT tables, where the employee's job is 'CLERK' or 'ANALYST'.
- 5 Display the employee name, manager ID, and manager name using a self join on the EMPLOYEE table.
- 6 List all employees along with their department names, including employees who do not belong to any department (use an outer join).
- 7 Find the total salary paid to employees in each department using the GROUP BY clause.
- 8 Display the maximum salary, minimum salary, and average salary of employees in the company.
- 9 Find the number of employees working in each department.
- 10 Display the department number and the highest salary in each department.
- 11 Find the number of employees working under each manager.
- 12 Display employee names and their salaries along with the grade category using the SALGRADE table.
- 13 Find the average salary of employees in each department.
- 14 Display the department name and total salary of employees working in that department.
- 15 List employees whose salary falls in the same grade as employee 'ALLEN'.