

SQL DB Lab 5

Instructions: Write SQL queries for the following questions.

- 1 Display employee name and salary increased by 15%, along with original salary.
- 2 Display employee name and total annual salary (salary * 12), rounded to nearest integer.
- 3 Display employee name and number of characters in their job title.
- 4 Display employee name and extract last 2 characters from their name.
- 5 Display employee name and salary padded with '*' to make total length 10.
- 6 Display employee name and salary category using DECODE (≥ 7000 High, 4000–6999 Medium, < 4000 Low).
- 7 Display employee name and commission; if NULL show 'No Commission'.
- 8 Display employee name and department name using join where department is not NULL.
- 9 Display employee name, department name, and location for employees earning more than 3000.
- 10 Display employees who work in departments located in 'DALLAS'.
- 11 Display department name and total salary of employees, sorted descending.
- 12 Display department number and average salary, only for departments having more than 3 employees.
- 13 Display employee name and manager name using self join where manager exists.
- 14 Display employees whose salary is greater than the average salary of department 20.
- 15 Display employees whose salary is equal to the maximum salary in their department.
- 16 Display employees who work in the same department as 'ALLEN'.
- 17 Display employees whose salary is greater than ANY salary in department 30.
- 18 Display employees whose salary is less than ALL salaries in department 10.
- 19 Display employee name and last day of hiring month.
- 20 Display employee name and hire date after adding 6 months.